§ 16-1. Application for appeal.

The owner of a building or structure or any other person may appeal to the Board of Appeals from a decision of the Building Official refusing to grant a modification to the provisions of this Code covering the manner of construction or materials to be used in the erection, alteration or repair of a building or structure. Application for appeal may be made when it is claimed that the true intent of this Code or the rules legally adopted thereunder have been incorrectly interpreted, the provisions of this Code do not fully apply, or an equally good or better form of construction can be used.

§ 16-2. Membership of Board.

The Board of Appeals shall consist of three members appointed by the chief appointing authority of the jurisdiction; and one member shall be appointed for three years, one for two years, and one for one year; and thereafter each new member shall be appointed for five years or until a successor has been appointed.

§ 16-3. Qualifications of Board members.

Each member of the Board of Code Enforcement Appeal shall have had some experience in the building profession.
